ALEXANDRIA CANAL AQUEDUCT.-The Aqueduct is, we regret to announce, about to be reconstructed. The engineers have arrived here, and made arrangements for boarding several mechanics from the north, who will probably commence work on Monday next. It is earnestly to be hoped that a writ of injunction or other legal process will at once be obtained, notil the proper tribunal shall determine whether the people of Alexaudria or the lessees of their canal have any right longer to obstruct navigation and injuriously affect the trade of Georgetown. Common sense, which is said to be the end of all law, tells us that our plainest rights are now invaded, and we entertain not a shadow of doubt that, when the subject is fairly presented on its merits, no court will hesitate to pronounce the Aqueduct a nuisance to this city. The Corporation hav-ing appropriated $10,000 to contest the matter and the owners of property above the Aqueduct being opulent, we see no reason why the time to lose. If we know the temper of the people here, we feel certain that they are prepared to spend any required sum in contesting the claims of Alexandria to the Aqueduct It must be abolished, and in its stead a good bridge with a draw must be built. Every man in town is interested in this matter. The above is taken from the Georgetown

Courier. We have conversed with leading citzens of that town, who say that the coal trade is more of a nuisance than a benefit there, as it occupies ground which could be far more profitably used in manufacturing and other business This coal trade is almost the only part of the canal business which passes over the Aqueduct. It seems, then, that a few wharfowners are actually leading the people of Georgetown to their serious detriment, in order that they may continue their outrageous extortions upon the coal interest, in the absence of the facilities of the Alexandria Canal.

.This Aqueduct was located where it is with the full concurrence of Georgetown; and we would submit that it is rather late in the day for them to clamor now for its removal, tha Messrs. Cooke, Dodge, Shumaker, and other speculators, who have lately purchased property above the Aqueduct, may have a chance of enriching themselves at the expense of others.

We have had quite enough, however, of these efforts to invade our vested rights, and the sooner the proposed attempt is made the RADICAL MOVEMENTS. - The executive committees of the different wards in the city and the county district will meet at seven o'clock next Tuesday night, in the colored Baptist Church, on Washington street, known as Beulah Chapel, for the purpose of nominating a candidate to represent Alexandria county in the proposed State Constitutional Convention. The names of S. F. Beach, H. H. Wells, Jno. Hawkhurst, W. D. Massey, Lewis McKenzie, George Tucker, and W. L. Penn, all white,no colored man having as yet been even alluded to-are spoken of in connection with the anticipated nomination, of whom, however, it is the general opinion that the first named gentleman will be selected.

BURIED. -The funeral of the late T. B. Munson, of Fairfax county, took place in Washington city yesterday. Mr. Munson was widely known, not only as the owner of Munson's Hill, where the Confederates held the Federal troops at bay for six weeks by wooden guns, but also as one of the few residents of Virginia who voted for Lincoln, in 1860. He was a native of the North.

REV. WM. E. MUNSEY.—The above named minister preached in the Presbyterian Church in Lexington, Va., on last Sunday. The Lexington Gazette says: "The intelligent audience listened with profound attention to the sermon for an hour and a quarter. He is certainly greatly gifted as a speaker, and take him all in all, is a remarkable and wonderful man."

THE WEATHER.-Last night, there was heavy rain, accompanied with a little hail, and lightning and thunder-and since then, the weather has been much cooler. This is the day of the autumnal equinox, and old experience, as well as the almanacs, say, "expect a storm about this time" -- sooner or later. It has been showery all day.

TEMPERANCE-MEETING. - Probably the last open air meeting of the friends of temperance in Alexandria during the autumn will be held to-morrow evening at the market square .-Prominent speakers from this city and abroad will be present and deliver addresses.

RADICAL "SAYINGS."-It is announced that at a late Radical meeting at Convalescent Camp, "Mr. Hawxhurst took strong grounds on confiscation, and Mr. Tucker spoke in favor of taxation." ANTEN GWA YOUM HEAVY FREIGHT. - The steamer James S Green sailed to-day for New York with a large amount of flour and five thousand bushels of grain from this city, in addition to three thousand barrels of flour from Georgetown.

+ BALL. The brilliant light observed last night on the Maryland shore, opposite this suspended from O'Possum Hall, where a ball for sale by was in progress.

ELECTION NOTICE. - We have been furnished by the Freedman's Bureau with the following copy of the handbills posted in different sections of the city this morning :

A cordial welcome ing a final revision of the Registration of this county, at which time the Board upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered will strike the name of such person from the list, and such person shall not be allowed to vote. And the Board will also add to the Registry the names of all persons who possess the qualifications required, who have not been already registered, upon their application. After the close of the session no changes in the lists will be made.

Capt. 45th U. S. In., Byt. Lt. Col. U. S. A., President Board Registration, Alex. Co., Va

THE HOMICIDE ON THE MARINER. - Charles Wallace, colored, who shot and killed Bernard Bell, also colored, on the Steamer Mariner, on Wednesday last, was examined yesterday morning in Washington, by the coronors jury, and though the evidence of Dr. Lewis of this city, who examined Bell while yet alive, could not be obtained--the Dr. not being present, a verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts already published in the Gazette, and Wallace was committed "to await a requisition from the issue should not at once be made. There is no Virginia authorities," as the offence was committed in the waters of this State. The U. S. Commissioner has no jurisdiction whatever over the matter, as it was not committed upon the high seas, but within the domain of a State having jurisdiction to a certain distance in the channel over all offences committed within those waters.

There was much excitement among the colored people during the examination.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE -The Boons boro' Odd Fellow states that Col. Wm. P. Maulsby, well known to many of the citizens of this city, having been President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, and late a member of the Democratic Convention in Maryland, was taken to the insane asylum week before last. The cause of his insanity is attributed to the death of his wife.

PERSONAL .- Benjamin H. Berry, Esq., for so long a period a citizen of our city, and for many years clerk of the County Court of Alexandria county, has, according to Richmond papers, been appointed a "notary public for the city of Richmond and Henrico county."-Mr. B. has resided in Richmond since the close of the war, and is practicing law there.

DROWNED IN THE C. & O. CANAL. -On Wednesday night John Bowers, captain of the canal boat, Mollie Mack, while engaged in attending to his duties on board of his craft, was pulled overboad by the tow-line of another boat and drowned. His body was recovered the following day, and forwarded to his father in Cumberland. The diseased was a single man.
